IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of my Father, who departed this life Dec. 8, 1956, 3 years ago.

I have had my share of sorrow,
I have had my heavy loss;
But, for the sake of Jesus,
I will try and bear my cross.

God is good, He gives us strength,
To bear our heavy cross;
He is the only one who knows,
How bitter is our loss.

Now he's dwelling where the music is eternal,
And the gardens bloom with everlasting flowers.

When we gathe 'round the fireside here at home,
May the circle of our family be unbroken,
When our Savior shall at last bid us to come.

A Bear on the loose in Appomattox County! Last evening, about 8:00, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Simpson were returning to Appomattox from Pamplin. About three miles east of Appomattox, on Route 460, they were startled to see a huge black bear right on the highway. Mrs. Simpson described the bear as being "close to 200 pounds." On arriving in town, they called the State Police and Sheriff D. T. Robertson, and officers went to the area to look for the bear. However, they were called off the search to participate in a search for a group of escaped N. C. convicts near Rustburg. As we go to press, no further report has been received as to the whereabouts of the big black bruin.

DR. WILLIAMS TO BE HONORED FOR ANNIVERSARY

. . . Dr. W. Twyman Williams

Members of Appomattox Court House, Stonewall, and Walker's Presbyterian Churches, with friends on this Sunday will observe the 50th anniversary of the ordination into the ministry of the pastor, Dr. W. Twyman Williams. The service will be held at 11 A. M., at Appomattox Court House Church. Guest preacher for the occasion will be the Rev. Dudley W. McIver, of Macon, Georgia, a Seminary classmate of the local pastor. Other classmates, denominational leaders, and friends will be special guests.

Rev. McIver will use as his subject: " AThankful Heart."

William Twyman Williams, Jr. was born at Woodstock, Va., in 1884. He graduated at Fishburne Military School, 1900; Hampden - Sydney College, A. B. 1903, A. M., 1904; Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, B. D. 1909; Washington and Lee University, D. D., 1925. He taught one year each in Donald Fraser School for Boys, Decatur, Georgia, and Fishburne Military School, Waynesboro, Va. He was ordained to the ministry, December 12, 1909, in Falling Spring Church, Rockbridge County, and at the same time installed pastor of that church and Glasgow Church, serving in this field until 1912. He was pastor of the Floyd Street Church, Lynchburg, Va., 1912-1924; of College Church, Hampden-Sydney, Va., 1924-1948, and of Appomattox Court House, Stonewall, and Walker's Churches since 1948. In 1909, he married Annabel Preston Lyle, who died in 1938. Of their six children, the youngest, Second Lieutenant George Bruce Williams, Army Air Force, was killed in action over Germany in 1944. The other sons are William Twyman Williams, III, John Lyle Williams, Rockbridge County; Dr. Mark Bird Williams, Richmond; Judge James Taylor Williams, Cumberland, Va.; and Major Archibald Alexander Williams, U. S. Army Air Force, stationed now in England. There are eight grandaughters and five grandsons.

Respected and loved by those of all denominations over a wide area, Dr. Williams has had an outstanding career in the ministry, and all people of the community join in extending feliciations on the occasion to be obecved this Sunday.

Tobacco Sales Off To Good Season Record

It appears that the current marketing season for darkleaf tobacco is turning out splendidly for farmers. Sales have been satisfactory, and poundage and prices seem generally pleasing.

Top record for warehouses in the first week of sales was set up at Farmville, with 816,298 pounds sold. Growers realized the heaviest income in many years on that market, as $305.613 was received for 718,912 pounds of dark-fired leaf, and for 34,386 pounds of sun-cured tobacco.

The price average for the opening week on the Farmville market was $37.79 on dark-fired leaf.

Demand trends were for strong bidding on common tobacco and normal demand for cigar leaf. The presence of some tobacco in unsafe order and graded wet, plus offerings of low and fair quality, held down the market average. Buyers seemed not to anxious to take wet tobacco.

Sales were light in Lynchburg yesterday, with 150,860 pounds sold for a floor average of $39.18. Here, too, wet and damaged tobacco was a handicap to growers. Tobacco of good color and body found a fine market.

Markets will close for the Christmas holiday after sales of December 17.

Hunters Having Fair Season

Sportsmen have had fair luck in the current hunting season. According to Charles Torrence, game warden, a total of 19 turkeys and 23 deer have been reported bagged since the hunting season opened on Nov. 16. This included reports through Dec. 5, and included game bagged on the Appomattox side of the state forest. Mr. Torrence says fewer hunters than usual have been in the state forest area, probably due to the presence of fewer deer. Quail hunters have had normal success, finding the coveys rather large. The hunting season will continue until January 20.

News Report Of Town Mayor

To the Citizn of the Town of Appomattox:

The Town Council will hold the regular omnthly meeting on Tuesday, Dec. 15, at 7:30 P. M., in the town office.

During the past few days the firemen have had to answer quite a few calls. They stand ready and willing to do this night and day. Let's everyone take a few minutes and check all of our stoves and furnaces and make sure that they do not become overheated and that all flues are safe. By doing this, I certainly hope that we can eliminate every existing fire hazard. It is our duty and responsibility to do everything we can to cooperate with these faithful men.

When talking with Mr. E. T. Mitchell this week, I learned that the annual Christmas Donation for the firemen is running somewhat behind last year. I plend with all of you fine and generous citizens to again have a part in this Christmas program, and to get your contribution to Mr. Mitchell by Dec. 19. You can be assured that every donation will be greatly appreciated and long remembered.

During the next few weeks, I am sure that some of you people have some vacant lots in town which you would like to have burned off. Anyone desiring this service, please call the Fire Chief, Mr. W. E. Hancock, or the Town Manager, and I feel sure that this firemen will help you in the very near future.

The Christmas Season is approaching and I certainly hope that all of you good people will give the town your one-hundred per cent cooperation, and let's exert our efforts toward cleaning and beautifying our community.

Your counsel and advise on all public matters is welcomed at all times.

Sincerely,
C. T. Moose, Jr.,
Mayor, Town of Appomattox.
